Dr. J. Collis Browne's

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED A REMEDY, to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. Dr. Browne is the SOLE INVENTOR, and as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false. This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the INVENTOR OF CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant Fyfe was a deliberate untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to. See The Times, July 15, 1884.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE IS THE TRUE PALLIATIVE IN NEURALGIA, GOUT, CANCER, RHEUMATISM, TOOTHACHE, MIGRAINE.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH, London, REPORT that it acts as a CHARM, one dose generally being sufficient.

Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states: "Two doses completely cured me of DIARRHOEA."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a liquid medicine which assuages PAIN OF EVERY KIND, affords a calm, refreshing sleep, WITHOUT HEADACHE, and invigorates the nervous system when exhausted.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, Hysteria.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—The IMITATION SALE OF THIS REMEDY has given rise to many UNSUCCESSFUL Imitations. Be careful to observe Trade Mark. Of all Chemists, 1s. 1/4, 2s. 9d. & 4s. 6d. SOLE MANUFACTURERS, J. T. Daventry Ltd., London.

HONGKONG SHARE REPORT.

In their weekly share report, dated 11th March, Messrs Benjamin, Kelly and Potts state:—

During the period under notice, the volume of business has increased to a certain extent and rates in some instances have improved.

Banks.—Hongkong and Shanghai Banks have ruled quiet and have weakened to $865 closing with buyers at the rate. The London quotation remains at £59. Nationals are without change.

Marine Insurance.—Unions have not been dealt in, but shares can be obtained at $480. China Traders are wanted at $55. North Chinas have been done in Shanghai at Tls. 07 1/2. Cantons have again been sold at $175, and more shares are offering.

Five Insurance.—Hongkong Fire is in demand at $280 or the dividend of $22 paid on the 7th instant. The dividend and bonus of altogether $7 on China Fires are paid to-day: shares have been placed at $84.

Shipping.—Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamships have further declined to $28. Indo-Chinas continued in strong request and were sold at rapidly rising rates up to $91, but at the close the market has weakened, and shares are now offering at $88. There are sellers in Shanghai at Tls. 63. Douglas Steamships have been parted with at the reduced rate of $32. China and Manilas have fallen to $20, at which figures shares have changed hands. Star Ferries (old) are wanted at $50; the new shares have been sold and there are further sellers at $18 1/2. Shell Transports are firmer, and sales at $1 have taken place. We make the closing quotation 19/10 buyers. Taku Tugs are quoted at Tls. 35 ex the final dividend of Tls. 1 paid in Tientsin on the 1st instant. Shanghai Tugs have further appreciated in value, and have changed hands at Tls. 50 and Tls. 48 for the 'ordinary' and 'preference' shares respectively.

Refineries.—China Sugars have enquiries at $108. Luzons remain neglected at $10. Perak Sugars are reported sold in the North at Tls. 50.

Mining.—Nothing doing. Ruils have risen to $7, but shares can probably be procured at this figure.

Docks, Wharves and Godowns.—Hongkong and Whampoa Docks have improved, and business at $265 has been transacted. Farman has materially advanced, and have been taken off the market at Tls. 144. The Report and Accounts of the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Company, Limited, for the year ended 31st December, 1903, were passed and adopted at the Meeting held yesterday. Shares are required for at $92 1/2 ex dividend. Hongkong Wharves have suffered a sharp reaction and close at Tls. 105, at which rate shares can be placed. The Company has declared a final dividend of Tls. 6 per share, making Tls. 11 for the year. New Amoy Docks are weak at $3 1/2.

Land, Hotels and Buildings.—Hongkong Lands have been booked at $148 and more shares are obtainable. Shanghai Lands, after sales at Tls. 100, are to be had at Tls. 100. Hongkong Hotels have dropped to $143, at which rate shares are offering. Hotel des Colonies have been purchased at Tls. 15. Astor House Hotels are in request at $28. Humphreys Estate keep firm at 10 1/2 and China Providents are in the market at $9.

Cotton Mills.—No movement has occurred in stocks under this head.

Cigar Companies.—There is no business to report.

Miscellaneous.—Green Island Cement are weak at $24 1/2. A. S. Watsons have been disposed of at $14 1/2. China Boroos are still asked for at $31. Hall and Hollis can probably be bought at $30. Gao, Fowicks are quoted at $47 1/2 ex the dividend of $3 paid to-day. Ices are to be had at $224. China Light and Powers can be placed at $14. Langkats have further receded to Tls. 295, but are wanted at this price. Central Stores have been sold at declining rates, and close with sellers at $20. Other stocks in this section are without business.

'You an Elder!'

Some good stories of elders and kirk treasurers were on tap at the ex-prosecutors' social. The kirk elder is always thought a legitimate target for the humorist. The stories that are told at his expense are endless. 'Everybody knows,' of course, of the man who seemed to have no qualification whatever for the office, but discovered at last that he 'could object.' Another chestnut that keeps cropping up is that as to 'the minister's man' in the kirk session who, when some burning question was under discussion, asked 'What is your opinion, minister, because I'm just of the same way of thinking as you?' But a new story was told which has, besides, the merit of being true. 'Not long ago in a certain church an election of elders had just taken place, and one of the gentlemen who had been promoted to office, was being congratulated by a fellow-parishioner on the honour he had received. The parishioner added that he was thinking of trying to be made an elder himself. 'Be other (the new-made elder) kicked the newcomer, and looked the picture of unpopularity and scorn. 'You've just got drunk on port.'

CURIOUS CASE AT SHANGHAI.

The N. O. Daily News of the 6th inst. reports:—In the German Consular Court yesterday Messrs Ellinger & Co., British merchants of Manchester, sued Messrs Meyerink & Co. of Shanghai, to recover £1,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by plaintiffs in consequence of the improper lending by defendants of plaintiffs' private telegraphic code to a number of a rival firm. The finding of the Court was as follows:—

The petition of the plaintiffs is dismissed with costs for the following reasons:—
1.—The Court rules that by reason of the plaintiffs sending to the defendants the code in which it is expressly stated 'this code is a private one' and in consequence of the defendants having kept and used this code that an implicit (implied) agreement existed between the plaintiffs and the defendant according to which the defendants undertook to keep the code book secret and not to divulge the contents to others.

The defendants therefore would be liable for damages if such have occurred.

(2) In the present case there is no proof that actual damage has been sustained. The fact that the competitor after inspection of the Code was in a position to save telegram expenses in a similar manner as plaintiffs may be deleterious for the latter but does not imply a real pecuniary loss, and it is further the opinion of the Court that the Code has not been rendered valueless by the indiscretion of the defendants because a knowledge of the Code does not imply the discovery of any business secrets of the firm. Therefore the compelling of a new code is not necessitated by act of the defendants.

The N. O. Daily News makes the following comment:—A learned Judge, now sitting, remarked that many a judgment second sound until the reasons for it were given. It may be otherwise with the decision of the German Court at Shanghai on Friday, in a case of great interest to merchants, which case is fully reported elsewhere. There the verdict, on the face of it, is a law just of common sense. It is, then, that it is when those reasons are carefully studied. It is evident that the defendants did wrong in disclosing the contents of a business code marked 'private,' and that they obtained the benefit of the judgment solely because damage was (in the opinion of the Court) not proven. To the ordinary mind, the fact that a private code is divulged necessary to so many firms convinces that, in case such code loses its privacy by the indiscretion of an agent, the said agent has deprived the proprietor of a costly, and therefore valuable, asset. The renewal of that asset, entailing fresh cost, is surely a case of damage. However, while the German Court did not think so, it is satisfactory to note that their decision makes it clear that it is incumbent upon agents or firms to respect the privacy of codes entrusted to them for use exclusively in dealing with the proprietors of such codes. That merchants will agree with this, and that a public code is as useful as a private one, is a matter hard to believe.
